

Good thing we have this large federal organization that doesn't do anything to help TV be safe for kids, I feel much better knowing we will have meetings and speeches and be able to continue the deplorable state of information on TV in America. What percentage of the Super Bowl earnings are kicked back to the FCC? Does Janet work for you, or do you subsidize MTV? just checking..... and keep up the good work, what that is.....